Men can be tough to read. So Cosmo editor Ky Henderson offers some insight into his baffling gender.

WHAT HE ISN'T TALKING ABOUT

He Doesn't Know What to Do Next With His Life

With economic uncertainty can come uncertainty about...well, everything else. Some people find themselves out of work, and others feel trapped on the wrong career path because of the lousy job market. It can have a far more devastating effect on men because they base so much of their self-worth on their career. So if your guy feels like he's reached a life dead-end, ask him questions that help him think about what he might want to do—without offering too many suggestions on how to make it happen.

DUMB ADVICE YOUR GUY IS GETTING

"A quality wingman will take one for the team. He will dote on the fat friend, jealous sister, or drunk coworker. If necessary, he will take [her] home."

His Most Telling Facebook Photo

Never mind the 387 brotastic pics of him and his buddies doing Jägermeister shots—ask to see his yearbook photo. A recent study showed that people who had a frown or serious face in their college yearbook were five times more likely to get divorced later in life than those with the hugest grins. This trend also held up for childhood pics.

HEAD GAMES

THE WAY HE POSITIONS HIS NOGGIN CAN REVEAL A LOT ABOUT WHAT'S GOING ON INSIDE IT.

TO THE SIDE

If he does it while you're speaking, he's interested in what you're saying. But if he's the one talking, watch out. He's trying awfully hard to prove he's not lying.

TILTED BACK

He's looking down his nose at you—literally and figuratively. But it's not necessarily bad; he may be challenging you in the hopes that you'll be his match.

DOWN AND ASIDE

If it's down and to his left, he's busy thinking something over. To his right? He's feeling emotional—you may want to ask him what's on his mind.
